Golfing Year-Round in Sedona, Ariz.

Sunshine in Wintertime Calls Out to Golf Lovers

SEDONA, Ariz. (January XX, 2017)– Lifting from the holiday fog is never easy, and warming up to the new year can sometimes feel impossible. Fortunately, Sedona, Arizona offers impeccable ways to defrost and get outside, even in the coldest of months. While known for its red rock wonderland, Sedona is also home to unparalleled golf courses. Sedona's picturesque courses have year-round playability, with sunshine guaranteed virtually all year long. Golfers will enjoy the breathtaking scenery and out-of-this-world temperatures on all of these uniquely spectacular courses.

Canyon Mesa Country Club

A true gem among stones, Canyon Mesa Country Club offers a nine-hole executive course that caters to every type of golfer. Reasonably priced, offering quaint and quiet greens, this course offers an unforgettable experience for truly everyone. This course is friendly to all golfers, and is a treat for anyone seeking a bit of solitude on the links.

Oakcreek Country Club

Open to the public, Oakcreek Country Club is a delight for all levels of golfing expertise. With greens full of tree-lined fairways, this course is noted for being Sedona's first Original Championship Golf Course. Nostalgia and dreamy views combined, this course showcases the splendor of the location and a superb course layout through Sedona's striking terrain.

Sedona Golf Resort

Widely considered to be among the world's most unforgettable golf courses, Sedona Golf Resort winds through the red rocks and offers a wonderful challenge to its players. A par - 71 course, each hole provides a unique adventure and jaw-dropping views. Juniper trees wiggle their way through the valley for some of the most special golfing views.

Seven Canyons

Seven Canyons is a private golf course open to members and guests of Enchantment Resort. Holding a classic course feel, the vibrant red colors surrounding the green capture players through all 18-holes. Nestled within a secluded canyon, the course designed by Tom Weiskopf is very highly acclaimed.

Golf can be a distinctively challenging sport, whether you are a seasoned expert or an eager newbie. Outdoor activities in Sedona can be an any time escape for many, with warm sun
